Instructions for APPLICATION for APPOINTMENT as a VOCATIONAL RETURN TO WORK COUNSELOR (VRTWC)

What is a Vocational Return to Work Counselor (VRTWC)?

Vocational & return to work counselor (VRTWC) means a person or entity capable of assisting a person with a disability with development of a return to work strategy and whose regular duties involve the evaluation, counseling and placement of disabled persons. A VRTWC must have at least an undergraduate degree in any field and three or more year's full time experience in conducting vocational evaluations, counseling and placement of disabled adults. (8 CCR §10116.9(s))

Who can apply?

Applications for appointment are only accepted from individuals. Any person who meets the minimum requirements of having an undergraduate degree in any field and three or more year's full-time experience in conducting vocational evaluations, counseling and placement of disabled adults can apply. (8 CCR §10116.9(s), and §10133.59)

When can I apply?

Applications for appointment to the VRTWC list are accepted year round. All applications are reviewed to determine if education and experience requirements are met. The list is revised as deemed necessary by the Division but no later than the time specified in section 10133.59 of Title 8, California Code of Regulations.

Who pays for services?

The responsible insurer or self-insured employer is required to pay for services. (8 CCR §§10133.56 (h).

How do I apply?

The application can be found on-line at <http://www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/SJDB.html>. The completed application can be submitted via email or regular mail with your proof of education and experience to:
