

TRAVEL AND SUBSISTENCE PROVISIONS

CRAFT/CLASSIFICATION

Terrazzo Worker and Finisher

ID

18-18-2

LOCALITY

Imperial, Inyo, Kern, Los Angeles, Mono, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, San Diego, San Luis Obispo, and Ventura Counties

TRAVEL AND SUBSISTENCE

ARTICLE VII

Payment of Wages, Travel, Expenses, and Subsistence

Section 3. (a) The following amounts shall be paid to cover expense and subsistence, with the employee's primary residence being used as the measuring point. These expenses shall be shown as such on the pay check stub.

(b) The Contractor shall reimburse the employees for parking expenses incurred in congested areas where free parking is not provided or readily available to the job.

(c) When jobs are beyond 90 miles as measured by MapQuest, Contractors shall pay a subsistence allowance of $100.00 per day for each day worked, from September 1, 2022 through August 31, 2023; and $100 per day for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays on jobs continuing over such Saturdays, Sundays and holidays within the same time frame; from September 1, 2023 through August 31, 2024 the subsistence rate will be $110 per day for each day worked, including Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays; contractors shall pay a subsistence allowance of $120.00 per day for each day worked, from September 1, 2024 through August 31, 2026; and $120 per day for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays on jobs continuing over such Saturdays, Sundays and holidays within the same time frame. The subsistence allowance shall not be due in advance but shall be paid by a negotiable check, in full up to within (5) days, on the regular pay day and be distributed on the job by 4:00pm, Friday of the same week.

(d) The driving distance for purposes of the payment of subsistence and expenses shall be determined by measuring from the location of the job to the location of the employee's primary residence. All such measurements shall be made utilizing "mapquest" or other similar internet mapping service.

(e) The contractor shall give three (3) days advance notice to the Union of all out-of-town jobs, except in emergency cases.