

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH
APPEALS BOARD

Summary of Los Angeles City Fire Department – Decision After Reconsideration
Employer failed to provide alternative means of fall protection for employees working at elevated locations where guardrails were impracticable. (3210(b) and (c)). The Board held that the general safety order applied since it did not conflict with the industry specific safety orders.

Los Angeles City Fire Department, 03-3960

July 26, 2010

3210 (b), (c)