

N E W S L I N E

Newsline No.: 2017-94

Date: October 19, 2017

George Parisotto Appointed Administrative Director of DWC

Oakland— The Department of Industrial Relations (DIR) is pleased to announce that Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. has appointed George Parisotto as administrative director of the Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC).

"We are very pleased with the choice of George Parisotto as administrative director, as he has been a valued member of our department," said Christine Baker, Director of the Department of Industrial Relations (DIR). DWC is a division of DIR.

Parisotto has filled the post of acting administrative director since February 2016, following the departure of Destie Overpeck for the State Bar of California. He has served in several positions at DWC since 1998, including acting chief counsel and industrial relations counsel. He was a workers' compensation claims examiner at the U.S. Department of Labor, Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program from 2004 to 2007 and an associate at the Thierman Law Firm from 1990 to 1998. He earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law.

For media inquiries contact Erika Monterroza at (510) 286-1164 or Peter Melton at (510) 286-7046.

DIR Director Christine Baker gives the Oath of Office to DWC Administrative Director George Parisotto

###

The California Department of Industrial Relations, established in 1927, protects and improves the health, safety, and economic well-being of over 18 million wage earners, and helps their employers comply with state labor laws. DIR is housed within the Labor & Workforce Development Agency. For general inquiries, contact DIR's Communications Call Center at 844-LABOR-DIR (844-522-6734) for help in locating the appropriate division or program in our department.